

I believe that it is an abuse of the public airwaves for Sinclair Broadcasting to air a thinly disguised political ad, pretending to be a documentary, so close to the 2004 election.

This manipulation of information and public opinion on the airwaves is not in the public interest. WE need diverse information from a large variety of sources, not polemics. I increasingly feel that I cannot trust the "information" that appears on television, and I attribute this to the fact that deregulation has allowed too few organizations to own too much of the public's airwaves.

It is your responsibility at the FCC to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. Please serve me and other concerned citizens by better attention to the license renewal process and better regulation. Thank you. Anna Eblen
